

The presentation grade consists of two elements: The delivery and the defense. Together, they will equal 30% of your Senior Project grade. Unlike the research paper, there will not be an opportunity to make up or redo either of these components. WYSIWYG.

Oral Presentation: 20 points

Criterion		Advanced 4	Proficient 3	Basic 2	Emerging 1
Communication	Non-Verbal Communication Uses supportive gestures, purposeful movements, avoids distracting movements, pacing, fidgeting. * Maintains consistent eye contact throughout
	Verbal Communication * Projects voice at a clear/comfortable volume * Vocal fillers: No ums, ahs, likes, uhs, etc * Tone: Professional yet extemporaneous tone * Pace is varied, dynamic, and appropriate
Content	Introductory and Concluding Statements * Your name, research question clearly stated * Hook brings your audience to attention * End with an impact! Audience left pondering.
	Primary Content * Presented in an entertaining, captivating way * Main points are made clearly and concisely * Counter arguments addressed, refuted * Visual aid clearly/effectively conveys content
	Conclusions * Implications of the research are clear * Presenter is clear of the importance of topic * Presenter relays passion/conviction for content

Comments:

Thesis Defense: 10 Points

Do you defend your thesis and methodology in a way that is clear, definitive, and decisive?

Strong Defense			Moderate Defense				Weak Defense
10	9	8	7	6	5	4	3	2	1

Comments:

Grade (out of 30):

Extra Credit Points:
Approx 1 pt/person

Final Grade (out of 30):